

Seether - Rise Above This

C G

Take the light, and darken everything around me
Call the clowns, and listen closely, I'm lost without you

Call your name everyday, when I feel so helpless
I've fallen down, but I'll rise above this (rise above this)

Hate your mind, regrets are better left unspoken
For all we know this void will grow
And everything's in vain, distressing you, don't leave me open
Feels so right but I'll end this all before it gets me

Call your name everyday, when I feel so helpless
I've fallen down (fallen down) but I'll rise above this (rise above this)

Call your name everyday when I seem so helpless
I've fallen down (fallen down) but I'll rise above this (rise above this)

I'll mend myself before it gets me
I'll mend myself before it gets me
I'll mend myself before it gets me
I'll mend myself before it gets me

Call your name everyday, when I feel so helpless
I've fallen down (fallen down) but I'll rise above this (rise above this)

Forty-eight ways to say that I'm feelin' helpless
I've fallen down (fallen down) but I'll rise above this Rise above this, rise above this, rise above this doubt
